

P. Allen Smith's Garden to Table with WILL-TV

3 Days, October 6 - 8, 2016 From $748*

- Meramec Vineyards • College of the Ozarks • P. Allen Smith's Garden Home tour and lunch
- Memphis Botanic Gardens
 - Get away with WILL's Mid-American Gardener horticulturalist Chuck Voigt

OUR GARDEN TOUR THIS year is to P. Allen Smith's Garden Home near Little Rock & Memphis Botanic Gardens. October is a favorite time to visit Allen's farm. It is cooler, the plants are at their fullest, and they have pumpkins everywhere! It is a ton of fun as we enjoy a tour and have lunch there. In Memphis, we'll have a guided tour of the Botanic Gardens with a farm to table lunch included. We also feature a wine tasting with lunch en route and dinner at the College of the Ozarks where the students work in lieu of tuition. Join us on our 4th garden tour to benefit WILL and promote fundraising with fellow WILL Friends! Our previous P. Allen Smith trip sold out, so don't delay.

Day 1, Thursday: Central Illinois-St. James-Point Lookout-Branson

Chuck welcomes us aboard our private motor coach as we depart Central Illinois and drive to Missouri. We stop for lunch at the Meramac Vineyards and a tasting of their handcrafted wines. We check into our Branson hotel and have time to freshen up for dinner. We head to the College of the Ozarks, known as “Hard Work U”, located in Point Lookout, 3 miles south of Branson. Since 1907 the college has emphasized character building; students work in lieu of paying for tuition and graduate debt free. We enjoy dinner at the college’s Dobyns Dining Room. Every part of your Dobyns dining experience includes work done by students. Overnight in Branson. (L, D)

Day 2, Friday: Branson-Little Rock-Memphis

After breakfast we head south to Little Rock, Arkansas. On arrival at the P. Allen Smith Garden Home, we have a luncheon prepared from produce of his farm. Next we have a guided tour of his home and gardens, which are featured on his PBS series. After arrival in Memphis we have time for dinner on your own. We will show you several options near the hotel and will have the coach available to take you to the hotel afterwards. (B, L)

Day 3, Saturday: Memphis-Central Illinois

After a nice buffet breakfast, we head to the Memphis Botanic Gardens. A guided tour has been arranged with free time to glimpse the 28 specialty gardens on 96 acres. Featured are dwarf conifers, 500 herbs and a butterfly garden. Enjoy your box lunch at Fratelli’s Cafe, nestled between the Water and Sculpture Gardens, or take your box to go - to enjoy it at another lovely spot on the grounds. We depart for Central Illinois with colorful memories of a variety of gardens. (B, L)
